No conflict, duplication or overlap.		Yes	No. The required paperwork is necessary for proper implementation. In fact, the prior revision was made to address the burden on entities.	No	The rule allows the department to announce if small businesses can be eligible to submit applications for loan funds.
No conflict, duplication or overlap.		Yes	No	No	No
No conflict, duplication or overlap.	N/A	Yes. The revised rule is the least burdensome alternative.	No. The revised rule minimizes the burden on private and governmental entities.	Yes. Currently section 9 of the federal Propane Education and Research Act of 1992 is referenced in 4 CSR 340-6.010 (6)(D)(1) to define the term "odorized propane." DE's proposed revisions will remove the reference.	Yes. Propane providers qualifying as small businesses are affected.
No conflict, duplication or overlap.		Yes	No	Yes	No
No conflict, duplication or overlap.	N/A	Yes	As written, the rule minimizes the burden on private and governmental entities. The required paperwork is necessary.	No	Yes. The rule indirectly affects small businesses, particularly those in the solar industry. Certifying renewables for RES compliance creates opportunities for small businesses in the renewable industry.
